

CEREMONIAL TO BE OBSERVED
AT THE FUNERAL OF

The Right Honourable
Sir Winston Leonard
Spencer-Churchill

K.G., O.M., C.H.

30th January 1965

Following Sir Winston's death on January 24 1965, his chauffeur to and from Chartwell for over forty years Frank 'Joe' Jenner appeared in the January 29th Evening Standard in an article titled 'All of Us' "Under that bluff manner, there was the greatest kindness and sympathy for people" said Mr Jenner "I like to remember Sir Winston not for the great things he did for the world and all of us during the war, but for his kindness and thoughtfulness for ordinary people. I remember particularly some years ago when I was driving him to London and he could see that I wasn't driving as well as usual. 'Why these mistakes?' he asked me. I explained to him that my little boy was seriously ill in Edenbridge Hospital. He at once told me to drop him in London and go straight back to the hospital and stay with the boy. 'Keep me informed and make sure the little chap has anything he wants.' When I was able to tell him that the crisis was over, I could see he was genuinely pleased to hear the news. That was typical of Sir Winston."
